Structural survey:

In determining potential liability, it is important that the condition of the environment be carefully documented before commencement of construction projects to prevent potential conflicts regarding existing defects. BBCI BV photographs defects to buildings and objects in the immediate vicinity of projects and captures these in a report. In the event of damage or complaints, the report serves as the basis for settling potential claims. BBCI BV experts are registered with NIVRE (The Dutch Institute Registry of Experts), thus the quality, probity and ability of the reports to withstand legal scrutiny is guaranteed on an independent and professional level.
